

Code of Practice

Our Code of Practice is the operational standard that sets our member companies apart from the crowd. Companies that choose to become a member of Medicines New Zealand agree to adhere to our Code and therefore consistently operate to the highest possible standards and procedures set for the pharmaceutical industry.

The Code is regularly reviewed and updated to keep pace with an ever-changing industry environment and the 16th Edition was published in 2014.

